INTRO IS IN A, USES CHORDS A D & E WITH AN OPEN A

Give ear, O my people, to my law: incline your ears to the words of my mouth.
I will open my mouth in a parable: I will utter dark sayings of old:
Which we have heard and known, and our fathers have told us.
We will not hide them from their children,
Shewing to the generation to come the praises of the Lord,
And his strength, and his wonderful works that he hath done.

For he established a testimony in Jacob, and appointed a law in Israel,

Which he commanded our fathers, that they should make them known to their children:

That the generation to come might know them, even the children which should be born;

G

Who should arise and declare them to their children:

Em

That they might set their hope in God, and not forget the works of God,
But keep his commandments: and might not be as their fathers,
A stubborn and rebellious generation; a generation that set not their heart aright,
And whose spirit was not stedfast with God.

And he built his sanctuary like high palaces,

Like the earth which he hath established forever.

He chose David also his servant, and took him from the sheepfolds:

From following the ewes great with young he brought him to feed Jacob

His people, and Israel his inheritance.

So he fed them according to the integrity of his heart;

And guided them by the skillfulness of his hands.
