

79. WE WILL SHEW FORTH THY PRAISE

E                      E/Eb                      E/C# E/A
O God, the heathen are come into Thine inheritance;
E                      E/Eb                      E/C#                      E/A                      E
Thy holy temple have they defiled; they have laid Jerusalem on heaps.
E/Eb                      E/C#                      E/A
The dead bodies of Thy servants have they given to be meat
E                      E/Eb                      E/C#                      E/A                      B
Unto the fowls of the heaven, the flesh of thy saints unto the beasts of the earth.

B                      A                      B                      C#m
Their blood have they shed like water round about Jerusalem;
B                      A                      B                      C#m
And there was none to bury them. We are become a reproach to our neighbours,
B                      A                      F#m
A scorn and derision to them that are round about us.

E                      E/Eb                      E/C#                      E/A
How long, Lord? wilt thou be angry forever?
E                      E/Eb                      E/C#                      E/A
Shall thy jealousy burn like fire?
E                      E/Eb                      E/C#                      E/A
Pour out thy wrath upon the heathen that have not known thee,
E                      E/Eb                      E/C#                      E/A
And upon the kingdoms that have not called upon thy name.

B                      A                      B                      C#m
For they have devoured Jacob, and laid waste his dwelling place.
B                      A                      B                      C#m
O remember not against us former iniquities: Let thy tender mercies speedily prevent us:
B
For we are brought very low.

E                      E/Eb                      E/C#                      E/A                      E
Help us, O God of our salvation, for the glory of thy name:
E                      E/Eb                      E/C#                      E/A                      E
And deliver us, and purge away our sins, for thy name's sake.
E                      E/Eb                      E/C#                      E/A                      E
Wherefore should the heathen say, Where is their God?
E                      E/Eb                      E/C#                      E/A                      B
Let him be known among the heathen in our sight

B                      A                      B                      C#m
By the revenging of the blood of thy servants which is shed.
B                      A                      B                      C#m
Let the sighing of the prisoner come before thee;
B                      A                      E
According to the greatness of thy power preserve thou those that are appointed to die;

And render unto our neighbours sevenfold into their bosom their reproach,
Wherewith they have reproached thee, O Lord. So we thy people and sheep of thy pasture
B                      A                      B                      C#m                      B
Will give thee thanks forever: We will shew forth thy praise to all generations.
O.....
